KEY FINDINGS

01 Named persona + step-by-step + free tool = the top format

Posts that name who it's for (VA, Guro, Negosyante) and show one free tool doing one job

02 Carousels generate stronger engagement signals than reels

Every swipe is logged as an interaction. TikTok's algorithm reads this as quality content and consistently outperform everything else on both platforms.

distributes further - reels don't produce the same signal depth.

03 Boosted posts convert followers - organic still needs testing

348 net new followers this week came primarily from a boosted story reel (S1E2 Pares Clark). Organic carousels convert at ~3 followers per 349 views. Boost strategy is working; organic conversion still needs sharpening.

04 Slide text is indexed by TikTok search

Search traffic is appearing organically for niche queries. Text in carousel slides gets read by the algorithm - this is a compounding SEO-style advantage reels don't have.

05 One niche (Guro) is too narrow - broad persona unlocks scale

VA, freelancers, negosyante, and employees are all searching for the same AI tips. Rotating personas expands reach without changing the content format that already works.

06 Branded search is appearing - TitoSerye playlist needed now

"Titoserye Filipino ai" is being searched. No playlist exists to capture it. Creating a TitoSerye collection this week will retain viewers who arrive via search and turn them into followers.

W31 CAMPAIGN DIRECTION

Starts Jul 28 | Image-Enhanced Slides

- > Keep carousel format - it's the proven engine, don't change it
- > Upgrade slides with real photos on S1 hook + S4 result slides
- > Seed first comment within 5 min of every post to anchor early engagement
- > Create TitoSerye playlist on TikTok this week to capture branded search
- > Add a companion reel to every carousel (one shoot, two formats)
- > Rotate personas every post: VA -> Freelancer -> Negosyante -> Employee
- > Consider TikTok Live - 1K milestone unlocks it; use for W31 launch
- > Sharpen profile bio CTA to close the 4,500 views -> 33 visits gap
